

Trad Campbell, a native of the Berkshires, has been with Lee Bank for 24 years and serves as Senior Vice President and Treasurer. He has been the bank's controller since he joined the bank and has held the position of Treasurer since 2009.

"Lee Bank is as much a part of the Berkshire County fabric as anything. Our philosophy and our focus are fully on the local community and that's a nice culture to work in. The value systems line up well here, and we put other people first."

"Chuck [Leach] has brought renewed energy and enthusiasm to the bank. We are a small organization, but we are constantly evolving. We have a culture that accepts change, new concepts and challenges. Most everyone here is open to new ideas and thoughts."

"There are not many companies in the Berkshires anymore that can boast employee longevity. Loyalty is one of my core values. I try to apply that to almost everything and everyone I know. I love living in the Berkshires and having raised my family here. It's an attractive place to live, and I enjoy the quality of life. The overwhelming consideration for me has always been stability for my family; and the bank has been very good to us in that regard."
